

Joseph Cofino

January 18, 2017

COFINO, Joseph, 65, of Teaneck passed away on January 18, 2017. Beloved husband of Blanca. Devoted father of Laura Cristina and Joseph Anthony, Jr. Dear brother of Belinda Colon and husband Eddie, Carlos Cofino and Anna Campbell. Loving uncle of many nieces and nephews.

Joseph was a man of God and a genuine family man. As a lawyer, he was a deep advocate of the Constitution and truly enjoyed helping others in their time of legal need. He loved to play the guitar and enjoyed music and dancing. He also had a keen sense of humor, and loved a good joke.

Family and friends are welcome to visit on Friday 2-4 & 7-9 PM at Volk Leber Funeral Home, 789 Teaneck Rd., Teaneck, NJ. Funeral service from the funeral home on Saturday at 9 AM, and then to St. Anastasia Church, Teaneck for a 10 AM Mass of Christian Burial. Interment will follow at Mount Carmel Cemetery, Tenafly. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Lung Cancer Alliance, P.O. Box 418372 Boston, MA 02241-8372 or at lungcanceralliance.org

“ Wow just found out of your passing. You were part of our family for a short time back in the 90s, and unfortunately, we lost contact. We have many good memories and always hoped that one day we would get to see you again. Our deepest condolences to the family. RIP. Angel, Ruth, Melinda and Adrian Rivera. “ Joe was such a tremendous gift to the St. A's family, and he will remain that gift in his joyful spirit we will all remember. Sunday mornings won't be the same without him physically there, but we can easily see him handing us that coffee cup with the warm loving smile of his. In times of challenge Joe was always there with an attentive ear and strong support.

*May you know the peace of the Lord forever, Joe...Kinda can't wait to get to heaven where we can pull out our guitars and join the celestial choir!
God rest you, my brother!*

“ Blanca and family-

I wish I could express the appropriate words to show my deepest sympathy, or say something funny to relieve some of the sadness....but all I can say is that I am sorry for your loss and please know that I am thinking of you and your family as you celebrate Joe's life and memories.

*Warmly,

“ My precious Uncle, there are no words that could adequately describe what you meant to me. The idea of living in a world that you're no longer a part of knocks the wind out of me, but I take comfort in knowing you are at perfect peace with our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Thank you for shining so much light and love in the lives of everyone who knew you. I'll treasure our memories and hold dear your compliments, advice about guitars, and sweet spirit. I love you.

Every tear
from their eyes, and death shall
be no more.
Death shall have no more sting,
for the things
that have passed away.

“ My wife and I used to sit behind Joe and Bianca at 10a.m. at St. Anastasia every Sunday. Most times, Joe and I would greet each other with a firm handshake and Bianca with a hug. Sometimes each of us would mention to the other about our reoccurring intermittent gout problems with a laugh or two, referring to the "old man paid me a visit." My wife and I will really miss seeing Joe who usually sat on the front pew, while my wife Mildred and I sat on the second pew. I think both of being 6 feet or better, we were usually the tallest guys in the immediate area and stood out. Joe my friend, we hope to see you on the other side one day and I hope you at least had a chance to receive and read our get well card before God called you home. May your soul rest in eternal piece, and may God wrap you in his everloving arms. I know your family will miss you dearly as well as a lot of us in the St. Anastasia community. Sincerely, Ray and Mildred Smith.

“ Looking back over twenty years ago I can only remember that you were that one person who could turn every frown into a smile in a few simple words, that person who lifted my head when I was losing faith in myself, that one person who did not care to carry tears on his shoulders, every fight, every break up, every death.. That person that accepted every decision I made regardless of his good and sound advise, that one person who knew who I really was and that one person that made the biggest difference in my life, that one person who I admire for his devotion to his family, always having time for his friends, the ill and the troubled; that one person whose eyes lit up each time the word of God spelt from his lips...my best friend.

“ This past Sunday I visited Joe at the hospital. When I walked to his room, and he saw me, he spread his arms as wide he could - there was nothing that was going to get in the way of our customary "bear hug" whenever we saw each other. Will forever cherish Joe's big heart and ability to express his unconditional love for his family and friends.

Joe was blessed with a beautiful family that loved him dearly. Spent time with Joe, Blanca, Laura and Joseph on Sunday. We laughed, cried, expressed our love for him and as Joseph stated to me in the hallway, kept Joe as comfortable as possible. I was blessed to see Joe one more time and tell him how much I loved him.

Growing up, my cousin Joe was my hero - he was the big brother I never had. Will forever remember, I must have been 6 or 7 years old, when Joe and Belinda visited Mom's house in Hoboken. Mom was a great cook, but when the phone rang, and Joe and Belinda told my Mom they were coming over, her culinary skills skyrocketed to new heights and the party was on. We would have a great meal and Joe and Belinda would stay with us for the night - talking, joking and laughing until late into the night. Remember begging Joe and Belinda the next day, as they started to get ready to return to NYC, for them not to leave as that meant that the laughter and joyful times would come to an end until the next visit.

I can only hope, with God's blessing, that we meet again, and I will get my "bear hug" many times more from my big brother. Love you Brother Joe and will always be grateful for you being my inspiration to always try as hard as possible overcome life's challenges.

Que Dios te Bendiga!!

Cousin Joe (Jr.)

“ *One or other must leave, one or the other must stay,
one or the other must grieve, that is forever the way.
That is the vow that was sworn, faithful 'til death do us part.
Braving what has to be borne, widening the ache in the heart.
One how so ever adored, first must be summoned away.
That is the will of the Lord- one or the other must stay!*

Goodbye my Love. We had many years but it wasn't enough. I will miss the sound of your voice singing your favorite tune around the house, your humor and smile and most of all your wonderful spirit. I will carry with me forever the precious and many lovely memories our life together, I will find strength knowing you are at peace. I love you my dear, dear Joe. I will miss you.
