“ Ms. Joyce,
As I sit here getting ready to write my Christmas cards, I am heartbroken not to be writing one to you this year. I still cannot believe you're gone.
When Ginny called and told me, I felt like I had run out of air. I called you awhile back, but you were in the hospital, and I didn't know. Maybe, God was trying to tell me something?
I cannot imagine the sadness, loss, pain your family feels, as I cannot imagine my own. The tears flow, but even as they do, I can hear you telling me to "knock it off"...In the way that only you could, and that gives me a smile thru the tears. You were my navigation system for being a Mom to adult kids, my GPS for a road that you were the best at travelling.
I could sit here and write for hours, but I'll close, saying Thank You for all our talks, calls, cards, letters, support. I am sure Sassy and Sophie were there to greet you, tails wagging. You finally got my puppy lol!
I know you are in God's arms, at peace. It doesn't make it easy for us though. My prayers to Mr. C, Robby, Ginny, and TJ. May God wrap them in His love and give them comfort in your loss.
You are loved.
Jill
