“ Judy lived two houses up the street from me for my entire childhood. Her parents were the sweetest, most generous folks. She was born a month after me in 1948. She was very tall and an attractive person. Always a bright spirit, she spent much time under an oxygen tent due to her asthma. She was independent and loved all animals, even the bears that roamed in her neighborhood. She was a very sweet person and will be dearly missed.

“ Oh dear Judi - from the time 5 years ago when I was your home physical therapist, up until you could no longer move your arms to text me, you were such a dear friend to me... your vibrant soul, your charisma, your amazing sense of humor, your unyielding love of animals, your powerful sense of right and wrong, and your profound humanity gives you a place in my heart forever more. You were ALWAYS hopeful that there was SOMETHING that "they" (the doctors) would be able to do for you - you carried an unfair burden of physical ailments, but that never stopped you. Judi "where there's a will, there's a way" Bogart - I will miss our phone calls and our texts. The last time I saw you was on your birthday in 2020 - covid had just begun and we drove into NYC to get a second opinion - and hoping for a miracle- for your torn hip muscle. I took you out for lunch at my favorite vegan cafe - you'd never been to a vegan cafe before, and you very much enjoyed it - especially the vegan chocolate cake for your birthday. I'm so glad that we got to spend such a long day together, Judi. I'm incredibly grateful to have had you in my life for the last 5 years, even at a distance. You were a giant ray of sunshine on any cloudy day. You will be so dearly missed. Thank you for all you shared with me, Judi, your support and friendship and love. Sending you the biggest hug and all my love. Fly free...Love you, Judi.

“ Hope u can forgive me for reacting and not discussing. My life got overwhelming and i lost my ability to talk things through...I miss our talks, Our deep love for animals. Your excitement at times was beautiful. Your suffering was heartbreaking. Your heart was big and filled with love. Your energy was bigger than that body's ability to do more. Your passion was bigger than life. Again I am sorry
