“ Dear Bill, Steve, Bob, Cynthia, Terrienne, Liz Ann, William, Ryan, Conrad, Colette, Colin & Hailey Meier: Please know that all of Bill & Cynthia's family in Dallas are keeping your Mom & grandmother, and each an everyone of you close, through prayer, good wishes, and sincere sympathy. I woke up this morning, thinking about both your Mom & Dad. About the wonderful boys/men they raised and the enormous fulfillment, satisfaction & joy your accomplishments must have brought them. The apple doesn't fall far from the tree. As a parent myself, I know you all gave them both the greatest gift you could have given them! Having lost my husband John way too early in life, I dare say that I understand how deeply you will miss them, & remind you that there is so much to celebrate about their lives, & their accomplishments: Just look at yourselves and your families! Our sincere condolences & love, Elsa, John & Elizabeth, Kevin & Robert Spencer##imported-begin##ELSA SPENCER##imported-end##

“ Mrs. Meier was perhaps the kindest woman I ever met. There was a time that I liked to think of her as a second mother or a wonderful aunt that always made me feel welcome in her home. The memory of her calling me her "little cherub" and pinching my cheeks is something I will take with me always. Although I havent seen her in years I am heartbroken to think that i will not be able to see her again. My heartfelt sympathy goes out to Bob, Steve and Bill along with their families.
