

June Guarino

April 28, 2019

Guarino, June (nee Kramer), 91, of Emerson, passed away quietly April 28, 2019. June was predeceased by her husband Edward Guarino; her parents, Lawrence F. Kramer and Anne Walker Kramer; and her sisters Mary Kramer, Margaret Toland, and Carol Blair. She leaves behind her daughters Denice Cross (and her husband Rich), and Aprile Guarino; her grandchildren Alisande Pipkin and Colum Cross; and her baby brother, Lawrence F. Kramer Jr. (Pat).

She spent decades of her life teaching, first at Saddle Brook and then at Leonia High School. June was also a die-hard Met fan; she was in attendance at the winning game of the '69 World Series and had a Tuesday/Friday package at Shea. After retirement she and her husband spent years taking any cruise that left from the NY/NJ area.

Family and friends are welcome to visit on Thursday from 9-10am at the Volk Leber Funeral Home, 268 Kinderkamack Road, Oradell, then to Assumption RCC, Emerson, for a 10:45am Mass of Christian Burial. Entombment immediately following at Mary Rest Cemetery, Mahwah.

In lieu of flowers, donations to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, stjude.org, are appreciated by the family.

“ For as long as I can remember, we shared a Christmas dinner every year alternating houses,during the season, with the Guarino's! My mother was a long time good friend of Mrs G having been a part of the Junior Women's Club in Dumont years ago together (1950's). That is how the connection to the Guarino family began. After my mother passed on ten years ago, Mrs G and I stayed connected, seeing each other when we could. She was one of the nicest and funniest women I had ever met. We developed a friendship of our own and shared a lot. I will miss you, Mrs G. You were so kindhearted to me and I cherish those visits. Also I would like to send my heart felt condolences to everyone in the family.
