

Karen G. Isaksen

September 8, 2025

Karen Major Isaksen, wife, mother, grandmother, sister and faithful daughter lived a peaceful, happy life surrounded by family and friends. She found joy in learning new facts, helping those she loved, a good old movie, The Beatles, giraffes, purple, and an exciting game of trivial pursuit or jeopardy.

She was happy with life's pleasures and raised two sons, Erik and Christian, with her precious husband, George, who she met during her college days. Karen spent many years teaching Sunday School at her church. Her work life included working at a local school and jewelry company but she enjoyed her time in the medical health publishing field the most.

Her intellectual capacity was unbelievable and her quest for knowledge kept her interested in all topics and sharing this knowledge with those she loved. She was a quiet person filled with an admirable amount of kindness and care.

Left to remember her are devoted husband George, her beloved sons Erik and Christian and grandchildren Dylan and Stella, her adoring sister, Patty, plus precious cousins and valued lifelong friends.

Her gentle soul and warm glow will always be remembered in our hearts.

In lieu of flowers please make donations to St Jude's Children's Hospital because that was her favorite charity.
