

Karin Renee Wander

July 5, 2023

Karin Renee Wander nee Rothenberg passed away peacefully at age 80 in Englewood, NJ. Karin was born in Manhattan, NY, grew up in Englewood, graduated from Emerson College, taught English Literature, and married Allan Wander, a jeweler in Manhattan's Rockefeller Plaza. They lived in Harrington Park, NJ where they raised their two sons. Surviving Karin are her youngest son Kenneth of Eagle Vail, Colorado, and oldest son Brian and his wife Maria of New Milford, Connecticut, her sisters-in-law Lois Berger of Westfield, NJ and Geraldine Rothenberg of West Hills, CA.

Karen was a devoted wife and mother, killer bridge player, charming hostess, avid reader, enthusiastic skier, ardent shopper, vivacious dancer, actor, and a lifetime member of the Bergen County Players. She had many friends and was a well-loved member of the community. For several years Karin worked in customer service as it suited her warm, supportive personality.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be sent to the Parkinson's Foundation at Parkinson.org.

Funeral services and spreading of ashes are private for family.
