Tribute Wall

“ I first met Kay all the way back in 1973. I still remember her young face and her friendly smile and manner. Her husband Ken gave me a job, my very first job at the Dairy Barn restaurant. Kay would do the books and bring the beloved checks. Ken taught me to work hard and instilled in me a work ethic that I have till this very day. They were clean cut, nice couple , they raised their kids properly. I remember their young faces, sometimes they would come in. I worked countless hours there and saved every dollar. I will always remember Kay and Ken very fondly and miss those days at the Dairy Barn restaurant. They were very good people and I want their children to know it was my distinct honor to know them. And it hurts to know that they have both passed on. Much love to the children. Your parents were among the very best. Chris campanelli
