

Katherine Ann Hull

March 8, 2012

KATHERINE HULL MINEO After a courageous and determined 21-year struggle against a debilitating brain tumor, Katherine Ann Hull, born September 28, 1943 in New York City, passed away peacefully on March 8, 2012 at 6AM with her loving family by her side at the The Lillian Booth Actors Home of The Actors Fund in Englewood, New Jersey . Katherine was a devoted mother, grandmother, loving wife, cherished friend and consummate ballerina. Having danced in several Broadway shows including, George M, Hello Dolly and Irene, she went on to own and operate The Studio of Performing Arts in Ridgefield Park, New Jersey. Trained at the famous High School of Performing Arts in New York City and accepted into Hunter College, she opted instead to enter the professional world of dance where her many, many, many friends and fellow gypsies will remember her ever-optimistic, disciplined and compassionate spirit. She is survived by her daughter Bremen Savino and her husband Tom Marguccio, her son Jarad Mineo and his wife Kimberly, her grandchildren, Nicole and Ryan Savino and Alexzander Mineo. She is also survived by her brother, Bill Hull and his wife Ronnie. Family and friends are invited to visit Sunday 2-4 & 6-9PM at the Volk Leber Funeral Home 789 Teaneck Rd., Teaneck. A funeral service will begin at 7:00PM.

“ I am so sorry to hear of Katherine's passing. It was a very special time for me at the dance studio where she brought music and dance into my children's lives. We all have wonderful memories of the play productions, building the sets and of course, the recitals. I am very sad to think that she has passed but I know she is in a peaceful place. As I sit here writing this, all I can think of is her smile and love of dance and this how I will always remember her. My thoughts and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Theodora Jackson##imported-end##
