“ I remember when her son, Robby Shays, fell to his death from a Water Tower, in 1962. I was about 10 years of age.

I live in Hillsdale and The Shays lived on Pascack Road, Hillsdale, NJ. I would see Mrs, Shays outside, in the driveway, of her house and I would say hello to her and to remember her son, Robby.

Five years later, she came up to me to offer her condolences upon hearing of my brother, Michael Conrad Roell's death in Vietnam.

She had tears in her eyes as she, a mother, understood the loss of Michael, as well as the loss of her son, Robby.

I hope she had a happy life and I hope she is with her son, Robby.

“ I wish to extend my condolences to the family of this wonderful woman.

This blue marble we live on is a little less bright since she left. I am honored that I was lucky enough to have met her.

With warm regards,

Christopher Boatman.

“ Susie Shays...I'm sorry to learn of your Mom's passing. That is a nice picture of her. I hope she was as happy to the end as she looks here. I flash back to great memories - joining our 7th and 8th grade friends at the many "get-togethers" you hosted. Your parents were great, I remember. I hope you & your family are well. Tom Corcoran

“ I was saddened to read of the loss of your loved one. When we lose our loved one in death it is the most difficult time in our life. However, there is loving comfort in Psalms 55:22 to “throw your burden on God and he will sustain you..” Yes, no matter what you are facing God is there to help you get through it. May you continue to have the love and support from family and friends. I sincerely hope that this Bible message brings you a measure of comfort during this difficult time.
