“ As I enjoy an evening on the illuminating deck he built or a meal in the kitchen he remodeled, I am reminded that Kent was an artist. He was a gifted and talented professional. More importantly he was kind and generous man. A friend that I enjoyed shooting the breeze with every Saturday morning at Delux. Rest in Peace.

“ Kent's kindness, compassion, loyalty, and sense of humor are rarely found in this world. Heaven will be better for his presence and we will be the that much poorer. He will be missed dearly and kept in our thoughts and prayers always.

“ The world lost a great man. And I lost one of my best friends. Always there for me. I will miss our time together sharing our problems and good times throughout our friendship on the benches in front of his shop.

Till we meet again my friend.
