“ *Dear Browne-Alfred family,
I had the pleasure of teaching Khalilah many years ago, and now I have the pleasure of teaching her beautiful and talented daughter, Aleyna. My memories of Khalilah are of a lovely, quiet young lady with a distinctive appearance. So, when she walked into my classroom on Back to School night this year, I remembered her instantly! Both, she and her brother Michael, had been my students. We enjoyed conversations on both Back to School night and at conference time. Ever well put-together, I must agree with Olene, "a fashionista".. :) Aleyna is such a terrific student, I had no real need to reach out to mom, so I had only a few conversations with adult-Khalilah. It was clear to me that she was very proud of Aleyna, and with good reason :) Khalilah made her mark on this Universe, and she will most certainly be missed. Please accept my condolences, and know I am here to support Aleyna, every day, here at school. I am so sorry.*

Sincerely,

*Ms. Spain

“ *Khalilah Brown Alfred. She touched the lives of so many, in a good and positive way.
Khalilah was loved by everyone, and not only was she a fashionista, she was always focused and disciplined, in everything she did. Her gift of organization amazed me!*

Khalilah Brown Alfred will be missed forever!
