

Kizzy N Harris

February 6, 2016

Kizzy Nhasharra Harris was born on November 22nd 1983 in Hackensack, New Jersey to Earlise and Wesley Harris. Kizzy lived an exciting life, always enjoyed a good laugh, and loved others unconditionally. On February 6th 2016, Kizzy N. Harris answered the call of the Lord to leave this world. Her signature gift, which was joy, was shown through her constant laughter and joking around, and it will never be forgotten.

As a child, Kizzy's early education began at Kings Kids Academy, where she not only excelled academically, but began her love of the arts such as: tap dance, music, dance, and drill team. She continued her high school education at Hackensack Christian School, where she participated in activities such as: chorus, hand bells, cheerleading, soccer, and softball.

She continued her academic endeavors and graduated from Rutgers University in 2007 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in social work. She went on to work in the hospitality industry climbing the ladder of success into management at the Holiday Inn Express and The Dream Hotel.

On December 10, 2015, Kizzy's greatest joy and love came from the birth of her daughter Reagan Amelia.

Kizzy N. Harris will forever be remembered by: her mother Earlise Harris, her father Wesley Harris, beloved daughter Reagan Amelia, devoted brother Seneca Harris and sister in law Karmon Harris, loving sisters Nakia Harris and Laurette Young, caring brother in law Kirt Young, and a countless amount of loving aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and friends.
