“ We were staying at the Reges in Wildwood Crest, August 89. I wrote Rob loves Lauren in the sand so you could read it from the balcony. You were pregnant with Brianna and belly was more than a bump; and yet you rode the waves like a pro in the two man raft we brought. The waves were pretty big and you were knocked into the waves. I was worried about the baby you said you were fine and got back onto the raft you wanted to conquer that wave with a smile.....We were parted....but I will never lose those good memories, which are all clear and will remain.....Our then young children were born out of Love.
