“ Dear Sheri, Steve and Sara: Words cannot express our sympathy for you all. We just wanted to tell you that we regret that we could not have been in New Milford today for Lauren's Memorial Services. Our prayers have been with you all day knowing that it is only our Lord who can truly bring comfort during this difficult time. We know that our comfort comes from the Lord and that is what we have prayed for today. Remember... "Cast all your cares upon Him for He truly cares for you" I Peter 5:7. With love and sympathy, Brenda and Hugo (Len Carpio's parents).##imported-begin##Brenda and Hugo Carpio##imported-end##

“ To the Savino Family I am very sorry to see in the paper that your beautiful Daughter Lauren had passed away. You know now she is at peace and not suffering anymore She is in heaven looking down at all of you. You will have many memories of her and you will always be thinking about her. That is way to young to pass away but we are not the ones in charge of that only God is. You will always be in my prayers and thoughts May She now RIP. “ Dear Shari and Stephen, No words can express our sadness on the loss of your daughter, Lauren. The pain of this is an unimaginable tragedy. We send our kindest thoughts and prayers to you and your family at this time. You were truly fortunate to have such a child in your life. In the hearts of all those who knew her, Lauren's memory lives on. Keep her memory alive by sharing those stories about her that make you laugh and smile. May God comfort you in ways only he can. Stay strong in the Lord and please know that you will be in our daily prayers.
