Larry, it is sad for me to write these few words , since we have been next door neighbors for better than 50 years & we shared many , memories as we both saw our kids grow up, remembered our times in the fire department & the memories we shared with our mutual friends over the years .It seems that time has passed so quickly & as we got older we had more time to spend together sitting in our yards under the tree in back reflecting on the past &future .I for one will miss these times we spent together.....May you rest in peace my friend.....John Caserta

“ We live in Ocean Pines MD and Larry was our neighbor. Whenever he and Anna would come down, he always came over to say hi and ask how we have been. He and I often had conversations about everything and I always enjoyed talking with him. My wife Candy and I are going to miss not seeing him and his friendship that we came to enjoy. May he rest in peace and may God bring comfort to Anna and his family.
