“ Linda worked as my administrative assistant for a number of years at Hewlett Packard. As she was a bit older than me I often felt that she watched over me and my organization with the care of a mother. She was a very kind and thoughtful person, the kind that would pick you up what she knew to be your favorite candy. I've only know a few people that worked as hard at her job as she did. I often thought she should have retired sooner as changes in the culture of HP were frustrating. I will always remember her as a very special individual with a big heart and a lot of constructive energy....

Thanks Linda, miss ya!
