“ Lisa, we were such good friends back in High School. I remember sleeping out in tents in your backyard, cooking breakfast for the football team, going to my first concert "The Who" with you and Alissa. We shared a locker in high school. I remember many fun times at your house with all of our friends! I wish that our friendship lasted a lifetime and don't know exactly where or when it went awry. Bless you and your family! 🙏💕

“ I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even to death. They continue to participate in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. We find comfort in knowing that our lives have been enriched by having shared their love.

“ dear Lisa. Thank you for being a loving, lifelong friend to my sister Alissa Brody. For bringing her joy, laughter and perspective. For bringing her boundless loyalty and love. And for bringing everyone you met an exceptionally rare and wildly contagious energy and passion for life. If I can live my life with half of your energy and a fraction of your devotion, I'll be twice the man I am now. I love you Lisa, and not because you were my sister's "gorgeous friend" (oh you have no idea how many of my friends would say that to me!!!) I love you because you helped teach me -- and I'm sure a lot of other people -- how to live the right way. ...with passion, joy and a fighting spirit.

I'd say "Rest in Peace", but that's simply not possible. You won't. You're whoopin' it up with the angels I'm sure. I can almost hear them (and you) laughing. I'm gonna hold onto that as long as I can, Lisa. As long as I can.

“ To my dear cousin Lisa, I am heartbroken. But I have the wonderful memories of our laughs together, we didn't see each other as often as we could have but the phone calls were like we spoke everyday. I said last night to the angles up in heaven to please keep you close, my mom, my grandparents and all your aunts and uncles and especially to my dear Uncle Bill, your grandfather. You will be loved and missed here terribly but so loved in heaven by so many. I love you, rest in peace my dear cousin xoxo

“ I will never forget my dear friend Lisa. We had countless sleepovers, seeing many concerts together, esp the Genesis concerts. We had such happy times , we were so happy to reconnect after all that time on Facebook - it seemed like yesterday we were teenagers hanging out and listening to our albums. Thank you for your friendship you will be truly missed by many.
