“ I just received the shocking news this evening, on the eve of Easter, that my friend Lisa had passed from this life after being so sick for such a long time. Lisa was such a dear friend from the time we worked together in a law firm in Scranton up to the present, though we hadn't made connection too often recently. We were going to meet for lunch kind of half way between her residence in NJ and mine in Mt. Cobb, but when I last spoke with her, she was not doing well, and I had no idea of the extent of her illness. I will so much miss her endearing ways whenever we were together, her wonderful smile, her interest in my life as we talked together. She was such a wonderful friend. God bless you, Lisa, and prayers go out to John, Melanie, and Shaun.

“ Lisa had a heart of gold and a smile that lit up a room. She will be missed by so many. I have wonderful memories of her with my brother and it was always a pleasure to see her, she always had a smile on her face and it was an honor to know her.

“ I met Lisa a number of years on the internet. It was through a pen pal site. She would talk about her children. You were able to see how much love she had for them. We would keep in touch through the years. I met her in person once. She came to my house for a pampered chef party. We lost touch the last few months. I reached out to her when it was too late. Until we meet again Lisa

“ Lisa was one of my earliest childhood friends, just across the street from me. We would play Barbies or we'd ride bicycles, play school, or invent a hundred little guessing games that only little children can think up. Other kids were glued to TV all day, but not us! We played out in the yard or on our block for many hours, especially in the summer. Some of my fondest early memories are with Lisa, and she came to share in many of my adult ones, more recently. Our children were of similar ages, and we would text on the phone in the middle of the night because we both couldn't sleep. She had a kind heart and a listening ear, but never let on that she was ill. I will miss her dreadfully, and I can't even imagine the loss to her family.

“ I knew Lisa in High School.
She was smart, funny and always smiling.
My heart is heavy with hearing of her passing.

“ Lisa and I go back to 1977 I do believe. She was a warm, fun, giving soul. She had the greatest smile I have ever seen. Unlike most of us, she seemed incapable of speaking negatively about others. This is a trait that normally takes a lifetime to develop, but not for Lisa. She was always reaching out. Our families (not too long ago) got together in Florida for dinner and we had a blast. This world is poorer today because she is gone, and Heaven is richer. I'm angry at God for her leaving, but cannot blame Him as she will no doubt continue her kindness in eternity. All our love to you dear Lisa.

“ My sincere sympathy for your loss. Praying that God provides comfort and eases your pain. Though I haven't been part of Lisa's life for a while, I spent some of the best times of my life with her way back when we were crazy teenagers. Lisa could always make me laugh (which wasn't easy to do back then) and helped me not to take things so seriously. She was very caring and sensitive. I remember that family was so important to Lisa and I am so glad she was able to have her own family to love and care for.

Back in the 1980's, we were wild, crazy and did lots of stupid things: I wouldn't trade those memories for gold.

Thank you, my friend, for all those good times. Thank you for sharing your warm heart and those beautiful smiles.

“ Oh Aunt Lisa was the sweetest. I remember as a kid she took me to the circus. She loved her family and kids very much. She'll be sorely missed.

“ Lisa was so beautiful inside & out and her children definitely have her looks . Melanie is my best friend and I was lucky to be greeted by Lisa every time I walked into her home. She always had the biggest & most contagious smile on her face. You will be missed Lisa. Rest easy and peacefully, please look down on all the ones who carry a special place in their heart for you ❤️

“ Lisa was a wonderful person who was always reaching out to others to just check up on them. She was always very interested in her friends and their families and would always ask how all were doing. She will be greatly missed by all.
I am so sorry for your loss. My prayers are with you and your family.
