

Lorraine C. Erickson

July 17, 2025

Lorraine C. Erickson, 79, a lifelong resident of River Edge died peacefully on Thursday, July 17, 2025. Lorraine was a graduate of River Dell H.S. and received her Associate of Arts from Fairleigh Dickinson University in 1966. Lorraine began her professional career working for Swedish American Line in NYC where she made many friends. She continued for many years as an administrative assistant, working for many companies but most recently at Curtis Circulation in New Milford, before retiring in 2011. At home, Lorraine enjoyed gardening, watching classic TV and game shows and spending time with family. Lorraine was fortunate to have such caring neighbors over the years and was beyond grateful for their friendships.

Lorraine was predeceased by her loving sister, Vivian DeMaio, her mother Ruth (Johnson) and her father, Emil Erickson. She was the beloved aunt of Suzanne Golden and her husband Ed, John Flannigan and his wife Stephanie, and Kathy Drury and her husband Chris. She was a wonderful great aunt to Brendan, Kate, Sean, Kaylie, Amelia and A.J.

Family and friends are invited to visit Wednesday, July 23 from 10AM-12PM at Volk Leber Funeral Home, 268 Kinderkamack Rd, Oradell. A burial will follow at Green-Wood Cemetery in Brooklyn, NY.

“ Lorraine was a wonderfully popular gal, one of the few that made an enormous impression on us Oradell boys as we entered 7th grade. But she was in fact a wonderfully friendly person. May she rest in peace.

For the record, I'm recovering slowly from my own medical issues - miss Judy tremendously. Am typing this on my daughter-in-law's phone - my email remains non-functional Chris Nielsen
