“ *We are sooo very sorry for your tremendous loss. You are to be applauded for your daily unending God given ability enabling you to tenderly care for your mom the way you have. Put that in your heart along with your lifelong memories to cherish and rely on for comfort from here on in. Paul remembers your mom with such fondness and from that I knew your mom was a WORLD CLASS WOMAN who is now your newest guardian angel watching and smiling PROUDLY 24-7 365. Please know that we are holding you and your family close in our thoughts and prayers while sending out our best healing vibes for strength as you struggle through this difficult and sad time. “ *Dear Nancy and Frank, Your Mother, my Aunt Lucy, was a kind, gentle lady who spent most of her early years taking care of her Mother. I knew her very well since she and Grandma lived with my family, Joe and Rose Toleno at 320 West Palisade Avenue in Englewood for a few years. I left Englewood for college and military service before you were born, and am sorry that we never met. I hope that you both are well.
