

Luke Andrew Moran

August 28, 2017

MORAN, Luke Andrew, 78, of River Edge passed away peacefully on Monday, August 28, 2017.

Born in Mayo Abbey, Ireland, he immigrated to the United States, living in Brooklyn, NY and Bronx, NY before settling in River Edge. He is survived by his wife, Catherine (Bernie) Moran, son Michael Moran, daughter Maria Sullivan and her husband Mike, granddaughters Molly and Keeva Sullivan, and sisters Nancy Glover and Della Chelston. He is predeceased by his parents, Michael and Mary Moran, and his siblings Mary Lynn, Joseph Moran, Agnes Walsh, and John Francis Moran.

Before retiring, Luke worked as a union carpenter, Local 608, helping to build the skyline of NYC. In recent years, he enjoyed his retirement, spending time with his family and friends, walking his dogs, and installing the odd window or door.

Family & friends are welcome to visit on Wednesday 4-8pm at Volk Leber Funeral Home, 268 Kinderkamack Road, Oradell.

Funeral service will begin on Thursday 8:30am at the funeral home followed by a Mass of Christian Burial 9:30am at St. Peter the Apostle Church, River Edge.

Private cremation will follow.

In lieu of flowers donations can be made to the American Cancer Society, www.cancer.org, American Cancer Society Center; Atlanta, GA.

“ Uncle LouKey bugs, our cool uncle! Those Chubby Checker records & showing us how to do the twist! The cherry cokes you made, more cherries than coke. Horified to learn I didn't own a proper hammer, this talented craftsman actually gave up one of his & then sent me off with tools enough to build a home! I'm glad you knew the depth of my gratitude to you. For it was your words more than anyone's that helped me bear the kids deployments to Afghanistan. Rest in love ♡Your niece Nan ☘
