“ Abuela, my heart aches for you. I know that our relationship was very trying, but one thing for sure was that I genuinely loved you and cared for you with all my heart. Despite the trials we faced, I never wanted you to feel alone and abandoned. I’m sorry that more wasn’t done for you by those you loved the most so you could be here a little longer, warm in your bed, on your favorite chair watching the shows you loved. I pray that our Lord and Savior Jesus protects your soul and I will there for you until the very end. You no longer have to worry about anything, sleep peacefully porque Jesus Cristo nos vas a guardar. Te quiero Abuela. I pray to see you in heaven.

“ Lydia was my surrogate Abuela. She was tough but with a big heart. She reminded me of the matriarchs in my own family, which made it easy to understand and love her. She was a force, a light, a rock to her family and will be truly missed. May she sleep peacefully with the angels and may her family take comfort knowing she is finally at rest with God. Te quiero mucho, Abuela.
