“ Thinking of the Russo family at this time of sadness. I only met Lydia one when my husband and I were selling our homes. Lydia was so professional and a classy lady. Steve and Christine Stohrin.

“ I was so sorry to hear about Lydia's passing. She was a real Teaneck icon, one of its best cheerleaders and always supported Teaneck's community service activities. I had the pleasure of working with her on various real estate deals through the years, and she was always honest and forthright, representing her clients well. We often spoke of our children, grandchildren, her pleasure in spending summertime in her lovely Spring Lake house, etc. My deepest sympathies go out to Robert, Rhoda and the rest of her "clan."
