

Maharani Veronica Haripaul

February 22, 2017

Maharani Veronica Haripaul

July 25th, 1925 – February 22, 2017

She was born at Hampton Court, Essequibo Guyana to Sookormonie and Bhowanidin Narine. Wife of the late Samuel Haripaul, beloved mother of Guendolyn, Joyce, Richard, Lionel, Jennifer, Lurner and the late Samuel Jr. Cherished grandmother of Sharon, Rozan, Marcia, Alyssa, Jonathan, Jenessa, Joshua and the late Catherine.

Loving great-grandmother of Shyaene, Tiffany, and Matthew.

Veronica immigrated to the USA in 1987.

She has been a resident of Bergenfield, NJ since 1999 and a member of the Teaneck Presbyterian Church.

At an early age, Veronica discovered her gift of dress making. She passed on her skills by teaching young girls to cut and sew, and she served her community as a seamstress.

She was passionate about God, family, and sometimes politics. She was always devoted to her 4 sisters and 5 brothers of whom she leaves behind her youngest sister Daisy and younger brother John.

Marrying into the Haripaul family, she just as passionately embraced and loved her sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, nieces, and nephews.

We thank the Lord for blessing our Mom with long life and salvation. After living a full life, she was ready to go home to her eternal resting place.

Although we will miss her dearly, we are more grateful for the lives she touched and the memories we will always treasure.
