“ To Daniel and family,
My deepest condolences for the loss of your father. I met Mr. Sheth a handful of times and didn't know him well. What I would say is that a son is often the reflection of the values shared from his father and I am confident that Mr. Sheth is proud of Daniel and his entire father.

“ Mahendrabhai was elder brother to all of us. He helped and cared for us from the day one in this country. Every moment we spent together was full of joy and laughter; so lively that it brings back memories all the way back to Bhavnagar. We will deeply miss him. Gopi, Geeta, Danny, and Bindubhabhi, please accept our condolences. We are having Mahendrabhai in our prayers since the moment we learnt his passing away.

“ A person that departs from earth never trully leaves. He is always alive in our thoughts, mind and soul. Losing someone is never easy, but knowing that we have been able to be a part of his life, we are blessed to realize that we could share his life before he went into eternal salvation. We are deeply saddened by the news of him passing away. Convey our condolense to your mom and your family.

“ It is with great emotion that we announce the passing of the hero of our lives, Mahendra Sheth. This is a time to rejoice in his existence and the ways in which he has so dutifully served the world. He lived a life of humility and much love, was a devout believer in the Divine and a teacher of compassion. He selflessly gave of himself and helped so many without any need for recognition or expectation of something in return.

He came from a life of less privileged conditions to a bountiful one today that he has shared with all of us. He was a dutiful son, father, husband, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend. He benefited from all of the blessings of his parents and God to live such a beautiful life, especially in the last five years. His ability to fight and survive is unparalleled, along with his infectious laughter and sense of humor.

Although his eyes were closed for the past 24 hours, he was amazingly aware and managed to open them to look at the sky in his last few moments as God carried his soul into a new existence, then held his gaze on us as he peacefully saw his children, wife and Shiven, before closing them. As usual, he outperformed expectations and lived longer than anyone expected ?.

We will miss him, but his passing has left in all of us an even greater sense of inspiration ?to become more like him – full of sweetness and gallantly serving others, as well as patience.
