

Maliakel P. Scaria

June 16, 2015

Maliakel Scaria, son of late Maliakel and Leelamma Pilo, was born on November 26, 1953 in Aluva (Alwaye), India. Maliakel, who was known as “Kunjumon” by his family and friends, went to his eternal rest on Tuesday, June 16th, 2015.

Kunjumon was a graduate of St. Albert’s College, Kolenchery, India and then worked as a lecturer at Cambridge College in Kolenchery. He was a dedicated and favorite teacher to his students in his early years of working and continued to stay in contact with his students and colleagues through present years.

Kunjumon migrated to the United States in 1980 after marrying the late Saramma (Shayma) Pathickal (Predeceased) and raised two children, Tom and Jim.

A Bergenfield resident for over 30 years, Kunjumon started working for the Housing Authority of Bergen County after immigrating to the United States. He was proud of his long and successful career with the Housing Authority, until his retirement in the role of Director of Finance. Kunjumon has been a long standing member of Saint Stephen’s Malankara Orthodox Church, Midland Park, NJ and was one of the original founding members of the Church. His passion was putting a smile on other's faces with his jokes and storytelling, he was never in short of a funny story to share with friends or family whether it was in person, phone, email or via facebook.

He is survived by his wife: Rita Scaria, Sons: Tom Scaria and Jim Scaria and Daughters-in-law: Shayna Nirmal and Elizabeth Scaria; Siblings: Moly Poulouse, Alice Thukalil and Sunny Maliakel; Mother-in-law: Annamma Iype, Brothers-in-laws: Varghese Pathickal, Mathews Pathickal, Varkey Pathickal, Poulouse Pathickal; Sisters-in-laws: Aleyamma Varghese, Mariam Paul, Lissy Paul and all of their extended families.

He was and will always be remembered as a loving father, husband, brother, uncle, cousin and friend to all who were lucky to experience his love, joy and laughter.
