Margaret was the kindest, sweetest, positive, most loyal, dedicated, family oriented, and faith-filled person I knew. We began as co-workers over 25 years ago, but she was a true friend. I am honored and fortunate to have had Margaret in my life. She was a blessing in my life, and I will miss her dearly.

“ Margaret was the best friend ever! We met at Duquesne and have been close friends ever since. It was a long distance friendship since I live in West Virginia. I visited Margaret in December of 2019. We had a great time together. She took me into New York to see the Rockefeller Center Tree, St. Patrick's, etc. When Margaret asked me if I wanted to go up in the Empire State Building, I said "Yes!" She was very surprised. She had never gone up it. However, we did it and had a lot of fun! I too, am broken hearted about her passing. I will greatly miss our long telephone conversations. Margaret was very devoted to God. I know she has a fast pass to heaven. My deepest sympathy to her family whom she loved so much. Mary Smoulder

“ Margaret would sometimes be a quiet person, but packed a punch with her enormous personality! I worked with her the few years prior to her retirement - her patience, friendship, and pure laughter will all be something I will never forget. She was a remarkable woman who always looked out for others. I have no doubt wherever Margaret is, she is still making sure we're all doing well. God Bless You Margaret, we miss you!

“ I am heart broken to hear of the passing of Margaret. Margaret and I became friends at work. She was an amazing mentor. She was patient, thorough and really cared about doing a great job. We were a great team, and I felt very sad when she told me that she was retiring. We stayed in touch though, and we met for lunch in Hoboken and had great conversations. I knew that she was devoted to God and that her family meant the world to her, as she always spoke about them so lovingly. I loved her outlook on life. She never said anything negative about anyone. We are the lucky ones to have had her in our lives. A beautiful example to follow. I will miss you my friend. Ivonne Ramirez
