“ Our heartfelt condolences to the Mendoza family....losing 2 important people in my life has only taught me that each pain is never the same, so i cannot even attempt to say i know yours and Hector's. Nevertheless, from one grieving soul to another, may I just say that i'm truly sorry for your loss and pray that you may all find comfort that she is now at peace with God and that her loved ones have had the chance to show her how much she was loved and cared for during her remaining time on earth...for surely, there are others who have lost their loved ones in more tragic circumstances. May God bless you more during your bereavement and our prayers are with you and for her eternal rest. Love, Shirley and family##imported-begin##Shirley O'hara##imported-end##

“ Dear Hector & Menchee, Sorry to hear about your mom. I'll keep her and yourselves in my prayers. I'm sure, no matter how prepared we are for something like this, a loss of a loved one is still always hard to accept. May everyone's prayers console you and the family that your loss is God's gain and that where your mom is headed is an eternal place of peace. I am scheduled for this Friday's corporate worship so if I can't show up, please accept my apology. God Bless, Bing & Susan##imported-begin##Bing & Susan Duma##imported-end##

“ To: the Mendoza Family From: Tony, Marivic, Daniel and Jacqueline Tambini Dear Vincent, Joey, Ricky, Danny, Hector, Chiquie, Marissa, Edwin, and all the spouses and grandchildren, We just want to extend our warmest sympathy for the loss of your mother, Auntie Ching. She gave so much of herself and touched the lives of everyone who knew her. She will be missed. But at least now she is no longer in pain. She is now happily united with her brother, Uncle Nap, and her sisters, Auntie Melda and Auntie Cora... Just remember, that even if she is no longer with us in body... she is with all of us in spirit... Our thoughts and prayers are with you all and for the soul of your beloved mother and aunt to us. Please let me know the details of the funeral arrangement. .. Tony and I will be there on Saturday. My mom and Lester will ride with us. I love you all... Stay strong for each other...
