

Marianne C. Ferrante

February 6, 2025

Marianne Ferrante (née Caporaso) of Paramus, New Jersey, formerly Ship Bottom and Hackensack, New Jersey, died on February 6, 2025. Born on June 28, 1941, she was 83 years old. She went to Wood-Ridge High School, where she was a proud and active member of the National Honor Society, and graduated in 1951. Upon graduation, Marianne attended secretarial school and became a secretary at Bendix in Teterboro, New Jersey. There, she met many close friends and her late husband, Louis Carl Ferrante. She later worked as a salesperson at Sterns in Paramus, and went on to be the office manager at both Zaloom Marketing and Apple Corrugated in South Hackensack, New Jersey, until her retirement in 2002. Marianne was also the dedicated president of the Hackensack Parent Teacher Association (PTA) for many years. She loved to travel and spend time with her family on Long Beach Island. Her life's passion was being a full-time grandmother to her four grandchildren. Marianne is predeceased by Louis, who died in 2017, after 52 years of loving marriage. She is survived by her sons Louis Joseph (Angelie) and Christopher (Robyn), and grandchildren Amanda, Casey, Andrew, and C.J.
