“ *One of my favorite, silly memories of my Aunt Marilyn was from about 15 or so years ago when my daughter, Courtney found out that Aunt Marilyn played Nintendo games, especially Mario Brothers. Courtney labelled her "the coolest aunt ever"! Not bad for someone who was about 70 years old at the time.
With love to all of you,
Trish*

“ My memories of Aunt Marilyn go back to early childhood. Our families spent many holidays together, with Nana in charge. With me, RAY, Kathy and Trish and Carmela, Jim, Tom and Kathy , 2 boys and 2 girls each, we went well together. One of my favorite memories of Aunt Marilyn was in 1997 when my mom Anna May, Marilyn, Carmela, Jim and I went to Ireland. Jimmy Fox took us out to the old Fox farmhouse where they lived for a few years when they were kids. It was overgrown and Marilyn said that she remembered a stream out front. Jimmy Fox picked up a pebble and tossed it. We heard it hit water and Jimmy said there's your stream. Marilyn laughed. My last memory of Aunt Marilyn was last summer. My sister Kathy, my brother Ray, his son Anthony and I visited Aunt Marilyn and Carmela. We just sat and talked in her kitchen. It was wonderful.

Hi Robert, I think the Jimmy Fox you mention is my dad. I must remind him of this story!
