

Marjorie Cruthers

February 3, 2008

CRUTHERS, Marjorie Howell, 86, formerly of Teaneck and Far Hills, New Jersey passed away in Whiting, New Jersey, where she lived since 2001. She was born October 15, 1922 in Ridgefield Park, New Jersey to Herbert Graves Cruthers and Mildred Ruth (Mehrhof) Cruthers. She is survived by her nephews, Richard F. Koppe Jr., of West Palm Beach, Florida, and Mark C. Koppe, Sr., of Elko, Nevada and their families. She was a graduate of Cornell University, with a degree in finance. She worked for many years as the Chief Financial Analyst to the Senior Vice-President of the Irving Trust on One Wall Street, NYC and for the Public Utility Department. She organized and conducted the first luncheon given exclusively for Women of Wall Street. Marjorie was member of the New York Society of Security Analysts, Inc., and the Women's Bond Club of New York. She was an accomplished sports woman and horse woman. She flew her own seaplane out of Teterboro, New Jersey and enjoyed fox hunting with family members at Essex Fox Hounds in Far Hills, New Jersey. She is preceded in death by her parents, two sisters, Edith Ruth (Cruthers) LaBlanc and Dorothy Crossley (Cruthers) Koppe. A private service will be held at Volk Funeral Homes, Teaneck, New Jersey. The Rev. Frank B. Cowell, will officiate. Burial will be at Maple Grove Park Cemetery, Hackensack, New Jersey.

Tribute Wall

“ Marjorie Cruthers

October 08, 2023 at 09:59 PM

“ Marjorie Cruthers

October 08, 2023 at 06:27 PM

“ Marjorie Cruthers

August 30, 2022 at 02:48 PM