“ Mark, you will live on forever in my heart. I was blessed to have you in my life for the 33 short years we had together as friends even though it felt more like family to the both of us. I'll always remember you calling me your sister and I'll still continue to call you my brother, the one thing I will always remember ... every time we hung up or left each other we always said "I love you" Until we meet again, may you Rest In Peace in the hands of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ ... Amen 🙏 ... " I love you Mark" ... I miss your voice already ❤️
