

Martha Elba Rosado

March 24, 1943 - December 18, 2021

Martha Elba Rosado was a caring wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend. She left this world on December 18, 2021. Though Martha's health was failing for years, few people knew the extent to which she struggled. Her joy for life and indomitable spirit kept her pushing through the pain.

Martha was born to Vidal and Carmen Moreno on March 24, 1943. While Martha has joined her infant daughter Michelle, she is survived by her beloved husband Angel, sons Keith and Brian and his wife Nancy, grandchildren Bryanna, Nicholas, Antonio, Alexander and Adrian and sisters Vidalina, Celida, Marisel, and Evelyn and their respective families.

Martha was born in Rincon, Puerto Rico and moved to New York with her parents at the age of two. She attended New York Foundling Hospital Nursing School. She became a pediatric infant nurse for Columbia Presbyterian Hospital and continued working as a bookkeeper in the medical field. She had a fond love for musicals and watching figure skating and spending time with her family.

“ My name is Sonia Rodriguez-Divorced name Rivera. This morning I was on the phone with an old friend, Sarah. Carmen and Martha completed our foursome. New York teenagers recently admitted to the New York Foundling Baby Nursing School. The year was 1961. My roommate was Martha. We had decided to be baby nurses. Sarah and Carmen were from the Bronx. Martha and I lived in Grant Houses. I visited you guys often. Martha and I rode the Broadway line at 125st station for 3 years. I visited Martha in New Jersey, had dinner and reminisced of the old days. I sent Christmas card and it was returned. The Aguada phone #s didn't work. My thoughts were that she had passed away. My shock this morning to see her familiar face under obituaries. In tears, I called Sarah. Hello to the girls. I'm sure Vida and Celi remember me. I have fond memories to share. Martha was in my wedding. My email is s rivera.tango66@gmail.com

I would like to share more memories of Martha. I can send them to a phone #. I cried this morning. Should have looked for her sooner. May she rest in peace. So quiet and shy is how I remember her❤️

“ She was my second mom in every sense of the word. She loved and cared for me just like she did her boys. We shared a love for musicals and she passed that love on to Bryanna and later to Nicholas as well. She even learned to ask Alexa to play Broadway music for her! She was an amazing soul, brave and kind and so very loving. She will be sincerely missed!
