“ Patricia, Jim and Maureen Murphy (Uncle Paddy's kids) send heartfelt condolences to Finnian's family here in the States and at Home. The few times that we had the opportunity to meet Finn, it was also a delight and his graciousness and humor will be a cherished memory. Near and far, our collective DNA draws us to right where we are all one. Peace and Eternal Rest to Finnian and Peace and Consolation to his family.
Best regards to one and all.

“ My first memory of Finny goes back to the 70's. I was walking through the square in Dungarvan on my way to secondary school when I got a belt of a huge snowball in the face. When I wiped the snow from my face I saw Finny' grinning from ear to ear with that glint in his roguish eyes. I didn't know him but I was told he was Finny Murphy from Kilmac. Didn' Know that I would end up marrying his cousin Noel. A bed in Heaven to you Finny. We'll miss you on facebook and all your wonderful photos. You were a lovable rogue and one of nature's finest gentlemen ❤️🙏 Breege and Noel
