“ Mary Ann was the epitome of unconditional love. She was a truly loving mother, grandmother and great grandmother. We enjoyed camping, motorcycling, horseback riding and traveling. She carried an infectious smile and never learned the word no. Always there to help.

“ I will never forget your vivacious mother, full of life, energy and love. Always treated me and my family like part of hers. The shillelagh story will always bring a smile to my face and who can forget her amazing shepherd's pie. I know this is a devastating loss for your family; I hope the good memories you have of her and can help ease the pain. Love Kim, Al, Ajay and Austin
