“ To Jeff, Mary was my mother's first cousin. I loved Mary dearly. This is a very sad day for me. Mary was such a beautiful person to know. Warm, friendly and a good hearted person. We shared some good times together in New York and South Carolina. You will be missed greatly. Beverly & Terry Toney##imported-begin##Beverly Toney##imported-end##

“ Mary was my dad's first cousin, however they were more like brother and sister. My dad preceded Aunt Mary in death. I know he would have wanted me to share how great and talented a woman she was, and that she was loved very much. Aunt Mary was multi-faceted in the Arts, teaching, cooking, and so much more. She loved antiques and dressing with style, grace, and taste! Even though I haven't seen her since I was a teen, I loved her. On behalf of the family of the late F. Edward Brayboy, I send my deepest condolences to Jeff and the rest of our family.##imported-begin##Ade Brayboy##imported-end##
