“ I have memories of Mary always sending Sean some off colored Birthday or Christmas card. farting Christmas carols. .etc..very funny. Mary had a sharp wit and a robust sense of humor, which was always on display in Bermuda, especially with the local caddies. At Christmas Mary's charms resonated through her music and vibrant personality. Wonderful memories. Bob Morris and Family

“ I remember Mary always giving Sean a Fart Christmas Card, or some off color seasonal card, very funny. The memories of Mary's sharp wit, robust humor were always on display in Bermuda, especially dealing with the local caddies. At Christmas it was always a joy to witness her charms. God Bless

“ Mary Breslin, known familiarly by those of us who knew her going way, way, way back as "Mary Milk Bar," was one in a million -- funny, warm but plain spoken (sometimes very so), caring and a wonderful friend. Quick with the repartee but always with humor, Mary did not suffer fools gladly. She loved Jerry, Kate, Mary, Sean and Micheal III and probably most of all her grandchildren.

"Mary Milk Bar" will be missed by me and those who had the good fortune to know her throughout her meaningful life. She was a "keeper." Love to the Breslin Family, Jay Bergen “ Mom/Me Mom was beautiful, quick witted, well read, classical pianist, athletic, cultured, kind and sweet. She lit up the room during the holidays and birthdays for her children and grandchildren. She was a loving wife, mother, grandmother and friend. Her sense of humor will continue on through her husband, children and grandchildren who loved her very much.

“ I played golf at WBGCC one afternoon in a ladies outing. Mrs. Breslin made it a point to come up to me, took my hands, kissed me and remembered me as being her daughter's friend from high school. In that 5 minute interchange, she made a memory for me I have never forgotten. She looked me in the eye, looked at me with love and caring, she really CARED how I was doing. I pray for her peace and that God is hugging her right now. I also pray for her family to be joyful that she is with Jesus.
