“ Joe and family,
On behalf of all our Marymount Sisters we are sending love and prayers to all of you. Mary was an amazing friend. We will miss her smile, her laugh and her cookies. We hold dear to us our many reunions in Tarrytown and Fordham, our wonderful trips to NY, NC, Miami to name a few. Mary will be in our hearts forever💕💕

“ Dear Cioffi and Greene families,

I was so very sorry to learn of Mary's illness and recent passing. We were classmates at Marymount and I really enjoyed seeing Mary again in recent years at reunions. I know that the hearts of many of the Marymount girls are heavy right now.

I am keeping Mary and all of you in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Dear Joe and family

Sorry to hear of Mary's passing. I'll always remember Mary's friendship when I was in NJ in the early 1990's, I always enjoyed meeting up with my cousins and the Cioffi hospitality. We are all thinking of you and Mary's family. Kevin Lavin and family “ Mary was devoted to our community. As PTA President, she was able to cut through the nonsense and get things done. As a parent of RD girl's basketball team she helped rally the team to victories with her create "ring and run" crafts. I will miss you, Mary. You have certainly made your mark on all of us.

“ Dear Joe and extended family, Auntie Mary, Eamon, Kathy, Eileen and Pat.

On behalf of my mam Nancy Kelly and my extended family we wish to offer our deepest condolences to you all at this sad time.

Just over 3 years ago we had the pleasure of spending an afternoon with Mary and Joe on their trip to Cloontuskert Ireland home of her mam and my mam.

Mary was so interested in the family photos and memories my mother recalled for her. She was very kind, pleasant and very friendly and engaging.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you all at this sad time.

Cousin Margaret Butler and extended family and my mam Nancy.

“ So sad to hear of our dear Mary's passing. I will always remember our days at OPS to Riverdell football Friday night dinners and games but especially over 15 years at our Vital Spirits book club evenings. Her spirited voice in our discussions will be missed along with her amazing cookies! Memories of Mary will be in our heart forever and Joe, we will continue to read inspiring books with her in mind.

“ Dear Cousin Joe,

My sister Theresa just called to tell me the very sad news. I recall with very fond memories the meal Mary, you and I shared together with Johnny, Chris, Val and other members of the family during one of my trips to the States. As usual, Mary was smiling, laughing and sharing her warmth and love with everyone at table. I'll cherish this image of her.

My sincerest condolences to you, Cousin Joe, and your family. My prayers and my love.
