“ Dear Foerch and Corio Families:

I was so saddened to hear of Mary's passing. I extend my heartfelt condolences to you all.

I will always remember her with much affection. She truly left a mark on everyone who was lucky enough to have worked along side of her. Mary had the most beautiful penmanship, which she showed off in her many notes and cards she enjoyed sending for all types of occasions. She had a wonderful way with words and it was always difficult when having to compose something to her as I knew it could not come close to what she had written. Mary loved preparing her Sunday dinners and sharing them with her family.

In her 92 years, Mary left many beautiful memories which will live on forever in your hearts. She was a gem and will be missed.

*Fondly,
Francene Hollander*
