

Mary Hero

August 27, 2015

Mary A. Hero, 89, formerly of Westwood, NJ, passed away peacefully on August 26 at her residence in Concord, NC.

Mary was born on July 23, 1926 in Fort Lee, NJ to Domeinco Calia and Angelina Santaiti. In addition to her parents, she was preceded in death by her daughter, Sharon Hero Floria.

Mary worked as a bookkeeper/cashier for the A & P Tea Company retiring in 1993 after 30.5 years of service. She loved baking, singing in the choir at Church of the Assumption in Emerson and being involved with family and friends. Mary enjoyed attending church at St. Therese Chapel in Paramus, St. Philip the Apostle Church in Saddle Brook, and being a member of the Legion of Mary.

In 2006, Mary started taking classes in philosophy and religion at Bergen Community College. She loved it and the students loved having her in their class. She was so proud, after reading an essay she wrote, to have all the young students applaud her.

Mary was a loving mother, grandmother and great grandmother and moved from Westwood, NJ at the end of 2013 to be near her family in Concord, NC. Survivors include her daughter Debbie Turner and her husband Bob; her grandson Randy Turner and his wife Janis; her five great grandchildren: Kagen, Bryce, Drew, Carson and Elle.

Family and friends are invited for visitation Saturday from 9-10AM at the Volk Leber Funeral Home, 268 Kinderkamack Rd., Oradell. Funeral service immediately following at 10AM. Entombment at Garden of Memories, Washington Township.
