“ Mary and I got to know each other through the wonderful friendship she shared with my BFF Dee Trend. Mary was so always so cheerful, calm, warm and inviting. She loved to create and enjoyed our quilting retreats, a place where we all shared our common passion. I will miss her. She listened with an open heart and never said an unkind word. My prayers for Bob and her family. She will be missed. Dori Patrick. Fabric Maverick.

It thoroughly breaks my heart to not say goodbye to such a wonderful friend in person and to pay my respects to her family. Mary was a remarkable person. She would always get mad at me when I spoke of old people, but the problem was that I had never considered her being in that category. She was always game for anything, especially when we got into trouble, or as Janet would say, shenanigans. Mike and I will miss you terribly.

With love and sympathy to her wonderful family.
