“ Mary is the kind of friend everyone wished they had. I was so blessed to have her in my life. I will miss her more than words can say. She didn't know how much comfort and joy she gave me back when I my son passed. There was always peace and love in her home and I felt each time I was there. I will miss the talks the laughs and the friendship
My heart goes out to Brandon, Ernest and the girls. She surely was a great Mom with the biggest heart. Thank you Mary for everything! Rest my friend. I love you “ Mary touched and uplifted many lives during her time as chief GED test administrator for Bergen County. As a teacher in the Ciarco Learning Center, I was fortunate and blessed to call Mary my friend as well as my colleague. I witnessed her devotion to the students who visited her office, either to register for the test or seek her wise and patient guidance, as she prepared them for this “second chance” at earning a high school diploma. Mary directly and very positively affected hundreds of lives in this way. In addition, her monumental task of planning, arranging, and coordinating all the aspects of the annual graduation ceremony in the Ciccone theater often elicited from her the comment, “I’m cracking up!”. This event was such a poignant and proud time for the recipients of the diplomas and their families, and they all appreciated it, AND HER, so much. I consider it an honor and a privilege to have known Mary, and although she retired several years ago, I still wish that when I walk by her former office at Ciarco, she were there! May her soul Rest In Peace.
