“ As I was still fairly young at the time, my vague but happy memory is one particular party (new year I think), which was held at Aunt Mary & Uncle Jimmy's hoose in Kilwinning. So many people crammed in tae the livingroom, all laughing and enjoying themselves (and no doubt at somebody's expense?) and of course - us weans causing havock upstairs oot the road playing records! Plenty of food, too much coke and crisps and a late visit tae the chippy was achieved! I also recall that Adam & The Ants was 'The' band at the time wae Adam Aunt posters dressing the walls of the Lassies room. Joe and Jim quite rightly looked after me as I was the youngest (led me astray!!!!) while Michael was intagratin wae the adults doon stairs (just sayin) 😊.

Anyway, all these memories (as accurate as I can make them up) reflect nothing less than a truely happy household where family, cousins, lifelong friends and neighbours all came together as one; this is what I remember and I'm sure is what Aunt Mary thrived on. I am blessed to have been a part of that back in the day. Happy days.
