“ Dr. Groves, or Mary Ann as I would come to know her, was a remarkable woman with an infectious smile, a deep sense of compassion and a huge heart. As her student, she taught me about Maslow's hierarchy of needs but as a person, she taught me a more valuable lesson; to always look for and try to see the goodness in a person. In the movie "A Wonderful Life" there is a line "when a bell rings an angel gets her wings" I swore I heard a bell moments ago. May God bless your family and may the loving memories live forever. With my deepest sympathy
