

Mary K. Morris

March 1, 2008

Morris, Mary K., (nee Ault) age 84 of Millburn, NJ, formerly of Teaneck died on Saturday, March 1, 2008. Beloved wife of the late Charles (1972). Devoted mother of Constance E. and her husband Stephen E. Schuster, Gilbert E., and the late Katharine A. (1956). Dear sister of Dorothy and her husband Rev. William Stone, Ruth Hadley and her husband Dr. David Hadley, MD, and her brother Wilbur and his wife Elizabeth Ault. Cherished Aunt of many nieces and nephews. She was a member and former secretary of the Calvary-Rosehill United Methodist Church, East Orange, a lay member for over 35 years for the United Methodist Annual Conference and active in United Methodist Women on both the local and district levels. Donations in her name to The United Methodist Homes of New Jersey or the United Methodist Committee on Relief would be greatly appreciated. A public memorial service will be announced at a later time.

“ *Bert, Connie, and Steve and rest of family members: Our prayers and thoughts and memories will be with you on Tuesday as well as at the memorial service. Even though I haven't lived near NJ for a number of years, Mary and I got to know each other better by talking and sharing for hours on the telephone. Our love to everyone.
