“ Dear Maureen (jr) and Marty, I loved your Mom my whole life. She was one of the many Bergen Blvd moms that was a mom to all of us. Maureen was a dear friend to our mom, Florence, and they shared umpteen stories and laughs in neighborhood chats, and later, in their many lunches together. Your Mom was a kind, sweet lady and always had lovely compliments to share when we chatted. Although your family moved “uptown”, she always remained a Bergen Blvd Mom, and we still call that house hers/yours. She joins your dear father, and her other recently departed Irish 🍀 angel friends in heaven. (I sure hope the angels impose a quiet time for everyone’s sake!) May she rest in peace, and may our and your many happy memories of her be a comfort to you. Sending our love and sympathy. Eileen
