

Maureen Wolf

January 11, 2025

Maureen Wolf, of Hawthorne, NJ, formerly of Lakewood and Oradell, sadly passed away on Saturday, January 11, 2025. Devoted wife of the late John Wolf, and beloved mother of Kathleen Wolf, Linda Campanelli and her husband Paul, and Mary Ann Wolf. Cherished grandmother of James, Ryan and Jack. Loving sister of Barbara Perhacs and the late Carol Wiseman.

Maureen (nee Curry) was born on December 3, 1940 to Marie and Joseph Curry. She grew up in West New York, NJ and graduated from Memorial High School. In her early years, she enjoyed time with her loving sisters and cherished friends, while spending most of her professional years at Maxwell House. She soon after met the love of her life, John Wolf, who knew the day he met her he was going to marry her. After getting married, she happily dedicated many years to raising her three daughters and always putting family first. She let her faith guide her through life, and was a devoted parishioner at St. Peter's the Apostle, Roman Catholic Church in River Edge.

Maureen enjoyed playing golf, watching sports, talking politics, and family vacations in Wolfeboro, NH and Bermuda. Most of all, she enjoyed spending time with her loving husband John, family and friends.

She brought so much comfort and so many laughs to those who knew her. She will be missed and loved forever by those whose lives she touched.

A private service was held on Saturday, January 18th from the Volk Leber Funeral Home in Oradell followed by an inurnment at George Washington Memorial Park, Paramus. Donations may be made in her name to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.

Tribute Wall

GM

“ I have so many wonderful memories of the time we spent together at Kings Pine Lodges in Wolfeboro. We always looked forward to your arrival. Through the years Maureen and I shared the memories over the phone. I will miss those conversations 🌸💕 Gail Minschwaner

Gail Minschwaner - February 04, 2025 at 11:58 AM