“ So sad to hear of Uncle Mel's passing. My mother was Ruth Dwyer-Williams from Little Ferry who was a very close friend of Melvin's wife Alva. To me they were Uncle Mel and Aunt Alva. I loved visiting them and seeing their dog King. Uncle Mel was so smart and such a well-read man I loved conversations with him. I still send Christmas Cards.

A great man!

“ So sorry to hear of Melvin's passing. I am a distant cousin from the Hamilton clan. My mom is Muriel Hamilton Rees, her father was Alexander Harvey Hamilton a tugboat captain on the Hudson River (mentioned in Jack's book) and his father was Harvey Hamilton who (I believe) was cousin to Mel and Jack's dad. Condolences from my mom and myself.
