“ I met Mike at Cardiac Rehab at Englewood Hospital about 7 years ago. As a newcomer, and he as a longtime participant, reached out to me - maybe because we both had beards (just kidding) and joined me up with his small buddy group. We conversed just about everything from autos, religion, politics, and of course health issues. He and Grace were and are true friends. We kayaked, took rides in his boat, visited then in Lauderdale-by-the-Sea, watched the Super Bowl in their home, treated by pizza, Hagaan-Daz ice cream, and the highlight, White Castle hamburgers, ate at Flemings between 5 -7 ($6 special time), and the most adventures, helping to take his boat up the Hudson (5 hours) to drydock at Stony Point. Both Grace and he are one of the most gracious and generous couples we have known. Our (Carol and me) hearts and friendship go out to Grace. Mike will be terribly missed. We have lost a good man. May his spirit live on.

“ So very sad to hear of Mikes passing, my heart goes out to all of Mikes family.

For many years my family would take summer trips to different parts of the country. Most of these trips took us through New Jersey where we always looked forward to stopping and spending a night with Aunt Grace and Uncle Mike. We could always count on Uncle Mike to take us on some sort of adventure. Because of Mike my sheltered Maine family got to experience things like the Empire State Building, the World Trade Center, China Town as well as regular trips to a beautiful park overlooking the George Washington Bridge. Mike loved to see the excitement and amazement on our faces as he shared these things with us. Things I will remember most are the boat rides in the Hudson River, taking down his aging fence in the back yard and putting up a new and playing don't let the balloon drop in his living room. Mike was a great Uncle and we will miss him greatly. Thank you for all the memories and time you so willingly spent with us.

“ Hard to believe he isn't here with us but I just know he's off steering a boat somewhere. So many memories and all are of a loving, caring, funny and vivacious cousin and pal. I'm very proud of the family I come from and all the love we've all shared over the years but my heart is breaking right now because this journey has taken him away from us for the meanwhile.

*Our heartfelt sympathy to Grace and all his children and their children. He was a wonderful man and he will be so very missed.
